Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter concerning the pending Criminal Code reform legislation. We of course are anxious to achieve the most favorable legislation possible, and in that regard we look forward to working with you to assure that a revision of the Criminal Code does not have an unintended adverse impact on intelligence.

I look forward to receiving your more detailed explanation of the concerns of the Intelligence Community. When we have received your views, I will instruct my staff to work with yours to coordinate our efforts on these aspects of the proposed legislation.

Sincerely,

William French Smith
Attorney General
